  5. climbing over barriers and/or positioning themselves in a grid other than the one assigned;
  6. not respecting the predefined route
- ... will be disqualified.
32. ETHICAL REQUIREMENTS: by signing and sending the registration form, the competitor, together with the representative of his team, self-certifies the non-existence of any sporting, civil and/or criminal sanctions or ongoing investigations against them for doping-related offences and declares that they have not taken - and do not take – any substances included in the World Anti-Doping Agency (WADA) anti-doping list (http://www.wada-ama.org/Documents/World\_Anti-Doping\_Program/WADP-Prohibited-list/2013/WADA-Prohibited-List-2013-EN.pdf) False self-certifications will be prosecuted according to the law. The O.C. also reserves the right to claim damages or take legal action against any competitor whose behaviour is contrary to the ethics of the sport, who tests positive in anti-doping controls, and/or who causes damage to the event's image. If the competitor belongs to a Sports Association, the latter will be jointly and severally liable for the payment of any penalty.

33. RISKS: the competitor acknowledges;
1. that despite the clear commitment of the organization to guarantee participants the maximum safety reasonably possible, there are still residual risks (also called "sporting risks"); which cannot be eliminated because they are intrinsic to the cycling discipline itself;
  2. to be aware that many other people will participate in the event, whose level of skill and cycling technique is unknown, and that therefore there could be situations of crowding on the route that could increase the risk of accidents and crashes between participants;
  3. to have chosen to participate in the event of their own free will and under their own personal responsibility, aware that, as in any sporting event, there could be risks of injury or accident;
  4. to assume full responsibility for the so-called "sporting risk", making this decision using their good reason and full awareness. The competitor therefore considers themselves solely responsible for riding their bicycle during the event in question, both along the route of the event and within the area of the event, obviously considering that such responsibility applies both towards himself and towards third-parties. By virtue of this, they ACKNOWLEDGE that the organizers of the event have done everything possible, taking into account the regulations in force and the particular nature of the event and the sporting discipline of cycling, to make the event safe and avoid the occurrence of accidents and damage to people and things, also providing for an adequate safety plan in case of need. They release the organizers and all the individuals with various roles in the event in question from any civil, criminal and/or administrative liability for any harmful event that may occur or that their conduct may cause during the event. They declare to expressly and specifically accept, pursuant to and for the purposes of art. 1341 et seq. of the Civil Code, the clauses referred to in the points of this document.
34. DATA PROCESSING: in relation to the information pursuant to art. 13 of EU Regulation 679/2016, the competitor must declare that they have read the information published on the website www.faustocoppi.net and that they have been informed of the mandatory consent to the processing thereof for the purposes indicated in art. 2) of the aforementioned information. This consent shall be given by ticking the appropriate processing of personal data box on the online registration form. The competitor declares to be fully aware that failure to consent to the processing of the data for the purposes indicated in art. 2) of the information will make it impossible to proceed with the registration to the activity in question. By consenting to the processing of their personal data, the competitor expressly authorizes ASD Fausto Coppi on the road, so that the competitor's data may be transmitted and processed also by third parties that offer services connected and linked to the Granfondo La Fausto Coppi, such as, for example, those involved in recording the times, drawing up and announcing the lists of results as well as those involved in photographing or filming the competitor. The data will also be processed by our partners Engagigo Srl and Evodata Srl.

1. Pursuant to art. 4 of EU Regulation 679/2016, processing means "any operation or set of operations, performed with or without the aid of automated processes and applied to personal data or sets of personal data, such as collection, recording, organization, structuring, storage, adaptation or modification, extraction, consultation, use, communication by transmission, dissemination or any other form of making available, comparison or interconnection, limitation, cancellation or destruction" of data.
  2. In relation to the lists of results and rankings, the publication of photos, videos, audio - and/or video recordings of any kind, the Organizing Committee will use such data and images of the athlete for internal and external use (various publications, sports videos, and on the www.faustocoppi.net website). With regard to images and/or video recordings, the athlete may appear alone or together with other individuals during initiatives promoted by and for the association. The Organization must be authorized by the competitor to carry out the aforementioned processing. The competitor must be informed of the right to revoke the processing, This right can be exercised at any time by sending a written communication to ASD Fausto Coppi on the road, C.so Kennedy 5f, 12100 Cuneo, Italy.
35. VARIATIONS: the Organizing Committee of the ASD Fausto Coppi on the road reserves the right to make changes to these regulations by giving appropriate notice on the www.faustocoppi.net website on the page called NEWS. The www.faustocoppi.net website will be considered the official communication organ of the event.
36. REQUESTS FOR INFORMATION: registration email: iscrizioni@faustocoppi.net
37. GENERAL RULE:
- a) The Organizing Committee declines all responsibility for accidents or damage to people, animals and things, including bicycles, of any kind and nature, that may occur before, during and after the Granfondo cycling event (i.e. by way of example, but not limited to, those resulting from unfavourable weather conditions, rough or bad road surface, insufficient lighting).
  - b) Participants who do not already have their own accident insurance policy are strongly advised to activate one.
  - c) By registering for the Granfondo, the registered participant expressly accepts all the provisions of these regulations and undertakes to indemnify the Organizing Committee and, in general, the Organization, from any liability and from any claim and/or request for compensation for damage to persons and/or things that may arise from accidents, of any kind and nature, that may occur before, during and after the Granfondo. In the event that the Organizing Committee should be defeated by claims and/or requests for compensation from third parties for damage to persons and/or things arising from what is indicated in this article, the registered participant undertakes to compensate the Organizing Committee and the Organization.

- d) The registered participant also undertakes to compensate the Organizing Committee and the Organization in the event of damage to the image and reputation of the overall event, of the Organizing Committee and the Organization, arising from the behaviour of the registered participant that does not comply with the rules of these regulations and the spirit of the event.
- e) By signing the registration form, the competitor expressly declares, under their own responsibility, to be in possession of the medical certificate pursuant to the Ministerial Decree of 18.02.1982, to have read the present regulations, accepting them unconditionally in every point and expresses consent to the use of their personal data pursuant to Legislative Decree no. 196/2003.
